

Dormansland Parish Council wish to nominate Councillor Richard Dandy to attend a Royal Garden Party in recognition of his longevity of service and commitment to the Council. His willingness to undertake less glamorous task embodies the best of public spirit and makes a meaningful difference to the community he serves.